Notes for Sebastian Marti:
St. Croix Post

November 11, 1885

On his farm on Horseshoe Lake died on Friday morning Sebastian Marty, the eldest German settler of Washington County. He was born in 1809 in Engi, Canton Glarus, Switzerland. His first wife died after 18 months of marriage, leaving a son who is now our Deputy Sheriff, Adam Marty. In 1840 he came to America. He lived in St. Louis, and came to Stillwater in 1845. He was a cook for John McKusik, who built the first saw mill here. In the year 1852 he bought the land now known as Jackmann farm, through foreclosure, and married Christine Einsidel, who now survives him with six children. In 1857 he bought the farm where his family now lives. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, in the church nearby the house. The ground on which the church stands was a gift from him. The Stillwater Men's Chorus and many friends from the town attended. May he rest in peace. He was a pioneer in the true sense of the word, and he, because of his long time living in the locality was well thought of by everyone.

The church and the cemetery near the church that father Marty gave to the congregation was filled with people paying their last respects. The sermon was preached by Pastor Bohnstengel. The congregation heard again a sermon from a respected pastor who was concerned about our souls.
